

It's about time now for the little fellows around the country to commence running cold-storage tariff stuff.

The peace party in St. Louis republican circles is proposing Mayor Kiel for governor in 1920. Good, long credit, but if he'll rise to the bait and keep quiet until they have got done "fixing" the slate who cares a whoop how much bucking he does afterward? That's a way they have!

That Excelsior Springs get-together republican meeting bids fair to congregate all the four-flushers of St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joseph and Springfield that have been riding the g. o. p. since they were promoted to long pants and offices were in sight. They sure do love the feed trough.

Wonder what the self-appointed republican "leaders" who are dishing things out at Excelsior Springs will do for Ex-Licent Gov. McKinley, another ever-blooming candidate—of the cold-storage tariff speech of the vintage of about 18 and something? "The boys" are always plumb delighted when he stops over with that old rot.

We notice that Mr. Three E's McJimsey is again in the dog for some of the crumbs that may be dispensed next year, and they say that fellow has a newspaper plant somewhere out in the state. Can't be much of a print shop, or he wouldn't be standing around watching for a chance to let go of it and butt in on the republican ticket.

HERBERT HADLEY of KANSAS, erstwhile governor of Missouri—accidentally—stole into print the other day, on the pretext that a newspaper had underestimated his administration. Haven't you noticed that he always grabs the slightest pretext to keep himself before the public and that, while always disavowing any itching for office, he is a perennial candidate?

As THE PRESS told its readers last week, the G. O. P. of Missouri has troubles of its own, and a lot of the self-elected ring leaders of that outfit are in session at Excelsior Springs, right now, trying to iron out, or otherwise smooth the wrinkles that an habitual lust for office has accumulated in such profusion that they don't dare say "where they are at" so to speak.

PRESIDENT WILSON has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation for Thursday, November 25. If the people of the United States are not thankful for the great number of blessings which have come to them this year, they are surely a very ungrateful lot. But we cannot believe they are thankless. The truth of the matter is we ought to thank the Great Creator every day of our lives for the fact that our beloved country is at peace with all the world.

A CERTAIN country editor failed to receive a "special invitation", under a separate wrapper, postpaid, special delivery stamp and all, and seemed to feel himself slighted, left out in the cold, so to speak, by the managers of the democratic rally at Cape Girardeau last week. Now, THE PRESS is firmly of the opinion that everybody in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth congressional districts and all his friends was specially invited to that love feast.

In attempting an answer to an address delivered last week before the Chicago City club by Howard H. Gross upon the question, "Can the Tariff Be Taken Out of Politics and Put Upon a Business Basis," the St. Louis Globe-Democrat says, in the course of a long-winded, specious and misleading editorial: "But can the tariff be taken out of politics? That is another matter. We agree that it ought to be done. We fervently hope that it will be done 'eventually'. But we do not hesitate to say that in the present state of feeling of the people of the United States it is impossible. Politics, in this connection, may be defined as the strife of opposing opinions upon questions of public policy. Where there is no strife there is, in this interpretation, no politics." "Eventually", but not when a general election is at hand and the "barrels" of a whole lot of beneficiaries of a monster tax are ready to be opened. The Globe-Democrat "fervently hopes" that with the same old tariff song its party may "get somewhere" again—why, one can read "spoils" between its lines as plain as the light of day!
